(3) Mr. Jackson's proposal to send the New York Giants to Japan was enthusiastically approved as well as his letter to Ford Frick. See attached memorandum from Abbott Washburn. No financing was involved here.

(4) Food for East Germany.

EE It was agreed that we should get on with this project promptly. A draft answer to Adenauer was approved and Mr. Kyes said that he would fly in some token shipments of food immediately if this was helpful from the psychological viewpoint. State and MSA were to coordinate the action. Mr. Jackson circulated the translation of a letter dated July 4, 1953, from Chancellor Adenauer to Ambassador Conant regarding food for East Germany.

IO (5) I distributed copies number 2 to 6 of the "Roundup on East Germany" dated July 8, 1953. Mr. Jackson discussed a telegram from the American Embassy in Stockholm quoting a proposed answer that the President might send to the Meany-Reuther telegram. WBS approved this telegram in principle and suggested that Mr. Jackson get in touch with Mr. Riddleberger immediately in order to expedite its departure.

(6) There was a long discussion of the Korean situation during which General Collins joined us.

ALLEN W. DULLES

Note: Mr. Dulles noted on his own agenda opposite the item on suitable commemoration of the Perry Centennial "send someone on the spot." From this I assume the Board agreed not to send a special representative from Washington.
